MRS. STOKES TELLS IN COURT STORY OF HER LIFE

testifies She Never Visited Edgar T. Wallace, Named as Chief Co-Respondent, at Bunceton, Mo.

JOURT THREATENS TO DECLARE A MISTRIAL

Justice Warns Chief Counsel for Defense to Cease Disobeying His Rulings on Objections.

The Associated Press. NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Mrs. Helen Stokes today took the witness stand in her own defense at the trial of W. E. D. Stokes' suit for divorce.

She reviewed at considerable length her acquaintance with Edgar Wallace, named as the chief co-respondent, and made denial of her husband's allegations. She said she had never visited Wallace at Bunceton, Mo.

"In your visits to New York before your marriage, were you always accompanied by someone?" asked her counsel, Samuel Untermyer. "Always chaperoned," she replied.

Jessica Mahoney, late today, arranged motions for a joint commission to take further testimony at Bunceton, Mo., and Bethel, Conn.

Justice Mahoney granted the motions after Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes had completed her direct examination, in which she denied categorically all charges made against her by her husband, and court had been adjourned until tomorrow morning when the Justice retired to his chambers with Max D. Steuer, counsel for the plaintiffs, and Samuel Untermyer, attorney for Mrs. Stokes, to make the additional testimony.

Wallace, who is serving his trial sentence in the Missouri State Penitentiary, is to be present at the trial.

Missouri Court Justice Mahoney granted during Mrs. Stokes' testimony to declare a mistrial if her husband did not cease disobeying the court's rulings on objections.

Mrs. Stokes traced her early life as she first attended the local public school in Denver, Colo., and she later attended a day school at the Wolf Hall Girls' School in that city. Later she attended a Catholic day school and for several years, while she still had a private tutor, she attended the Sycamore School at Sycamore, Ill. This was the first time she had gone away from home, she said.

Leave Home. Mrs. Stokes said her grandmother, several aunts and cousins reside in their Sycamore home.

"Did you ever run away from school?" "No, I went to my grandmother's house until my brother sent my money to return to Denver."

In 1902 or 1904, Mrs. Stokes said, when the National Park Seminary in Washington, D. C., was studying music and literature, and the end of the year, her sister and her and they went to Europe as an educational tour. They remained abroad six months. Soon after their return she made her debut in Denver.

The family traveled west, she said, going California in 1906 and stopping at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco.

"I think we were at the Palace for two or three weeks when Gates, or his sister, Mrs. Neff, the wife of Senator Pittman of Nevada, introduced me to Wallace," she said.

"How frequently did you meet Mr. Wallace?" "About four or five times. It may have been more or less."

"Where did you generally meet him?" "Usually on the beach where we were taking my young sisters and brother down to wade."

"There always was a crowd on the beach." "Yes, there was always a lot of nurses, mothers and young girls."

"Do you get to know Mr. Wallace well?" "I don't know what I mean by 'well'—that we were always friends."

"Pictures With Wallace." Mrs. Stokes was then handed the picture of herself and Wallace at the beach at San Francisco, and she recognized the picture, and said she did, adding the student. "I think I was going to get him, and he grabbed my hand to stop me. Mother took the picture."

She identified another photograph of herself and Wallace taken at the beach and identified two other women in the group as her sister, Alice and Humboldt Gates.

"Did you ever meet Wallace at home?" she was asked. "No, I heard of Budouton, but I never replied."

Mrs. Stokes testified she never met

LAPORTE HEARD ON INCREASE IN MORSE RENTAL

Former Assistant Secretary of Treasury Brings Statement of Health Service Director as False.

RECORD OF MATTER DOCTORED, HE SAYS

Tells of Insisting That Payments to Excelsior Springs Man Extend Over Period of Ten Years.

Post-Dispatch Bureau, 23 Wyatt Building.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Ewing Laporte, the youthful former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, who closed the deal, in 1921, for the leasing of the "Liv" Morse property for Government hospital purposes took the stand today before the Senate committee investigating the Veterans' Bureau. Laporte, who is practicing law at Pittsburg, appeared as a witness at his own request to answer criticisms of his part in the Morse transaction.

Laporte formerly lived at Springfield, Mo., and St. Louis. He resigned from the Treasury June 1, 1921. He had nothing to do with the purchase of the Morse property, which was not completed till July, 1922.

Laporte branded as a "deliberate falsehood," the statement by C. H. Stratton, of the Construction Division of the Public Health Service and other witnesses connected with that service, that while the negotiations were in progress, he directed that the appraised value of the Morse homestead be increased from $7,000 to $90,000.

Denies Increasing Rental.

Not only did he not increase the value on which the rental of the Morse home was to be based, Laporte asserted, but he effected a change in the rental in the interest of the Government. The Public Health Service, he said, wanted the first year's rental to be fixed at a sum that would reimburse Morse to a large extent for the additions he contracted to make. Laporte said he insisted that the reimbursement should be made in the form of rent-all spread over 10 years.

Papers previously shown to the committee purporting to show that Laporte increased the valuation of the Morse homestead from $7,000 to $90,000, after the Public Health Service and Morse had agreed on the former figure, were characterized by Laporte as "a doctored up record."

Laporte testified that when the proposal to lease the Excelsior Springs property first came up, a friend of his, a Democrat, warned him to be careful as dealings with Morse might grow into a "political issue" in Missouri.

Tried to Drive Hard Bargain.

On this account, Laporte continued, he was more "suspicious" of the Morse transaction than of many others he handled and "tried to drive a hard bargain."

Laporte said that he was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and placed in charge of health service activities in December, 1920.

He had been connected with the office since July, 1918, and previously had been in the army.

Major-General John F. O'Ryan, counsel for the committee, told the witness the record showed that Dr. F. C. Smith, chief of the tuberculosis section of the public health service, had made a recommendation against the Morse project. Laporte replied that the health service officials with whom he dealt were all in favor of the lease.

O'Ryan quoted the testimony of Laporte to the effect that the Morse deal was "pushed" by Laporte, so as to bring it to a head on March 3, 1921, the day before the Harding administration came in. Laporte said he did push it as he pushed all relief efforts. Laporte denied testimony that he had "torn up" papers relating to the Morse case.

Bureau at Loggerheads.

"When I was appointed," said Laporte, "there was constant friction between the War Risk Bureau and the Public Health Service. They were always at loggerheads. One of the ideas of my appointment was that I should cure the friction. In trying to act as a peacemaker I incurred the ill-will of both sides."

WASHINGTON NOT PLEASED WITH POINCARÉ'S SPEECH

Supposed Restriction on Reparations Not Well Received by American Government Officials.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Statements attributed to Premier Poincaré in press advices from Paris, indicating the desire of the French government to restrict sharply the scope of the proposed expert inquiry into the reparation situation, have occasioned considerable concern in official quarters in Washington.

It was said authoritatively that the restrictions outlined were not in accord with the suggestion for an expert commission put forward by Secretary Hughes.

French officials indicated that if France insisted upon a form that would prevent a full and complete inquiry into Germany's capacity to make reparations payments, the success of the present negotiations would be seriously jeopardized in the eyes of Washington.

Director of Bank of England May Be on Committee.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Sir Robert Kinnaird, director of the Bank of England, is being considered by the British Government as its representative on the proposed committee of experts to deal with the German reparation question. According to the Foreign Office, there have been no discussions between the American and British Governments regarding any special American as a member of the commission.

The III-will especially of the construction division of the health service.

Laporte said that in driving contracts for the leasing of hospitals he had to rely wholly on the construction division of the health service for appraisals of property. The Morse appraisal, he said, was entirely the work of the Public Health Service, and came to him with the approval of everybody concerned in the matter.

Gordon said the money was due O'Brien under his contract.

Asked why he made a trip to Excelsior Springs to look over the Morse property, he said that he wanted to inspect it, just as he inspected other sites, to get all the information he could.

"It has been inferred," said Gen. O'Ryan, "that you were friendly with Morse, had known him for a long time, and might have been interested in carrying favor with him."

TORONTO, Nov. 1.—A number of statesmen and educators of the United States and Canada are to be interested in the organization of the Banting Medical Research Foundation, plans for which were announced by Dr. F. G. Banting, discoverer of the insulin treatment for diabetes, in London, Ont., last night.

Dr. Banting was the first contributor to the proposed $1,000,000 fund, having signified his intention to donate $10,000, a portion of his share of the 1923 Nobel prize. The foundation, with headquarters in Toronto, will forward the work of medical research and scientific study. Those reported to have signified their desire to participate in the work include Secretary of State Hughes, former President Wilson, Chief Justice Taft, Lord Byng, Governor General of Canada; Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Sir Edmund Walker, Sir Robert Falconer, Sir Arthur Currie and E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 1.—The will of Capt. O. H. Morgan, former Mayor of Highland Park, filed at Washburn today, leaves $50,000 and $30,000 in real estate to several heirs, including a daughter, Catherine C. Day of 5117 Westminster place, St. Louis.

Surgeon-General Heard.

Surgeon-General Cummings told the committee that Laporte had been in error in saying that he had recommended the Morse home instead at Excelsior Springs as home.

"To be frank," he said, "we were rather stalling, as we had not had a chance to look into the matter, and we expected a change in administration soon."

Dr. Cummings said there "seemed to be some haste in getting the thing through."

"Of whose part?" asked Gen. O'Ryan. "In the department."

"You mean Mr. Laporte?" said Senator Reed. "That was the general impression."

The surgeon-general declared there had been no suppression in his office of any adverse report on Laporte.

Examined by Senator Walsh Dr. Cummings said at the time of the approval of the lease agreement the public health service would not have accepted the site unless its hospital board has passed it, which it had not.

"I don't think it was a bad buy," he added. "I think it is a very prettily located place."

Dispute Put Up to Coolidge.

President Coolidge's dispute as to whether the Reichswehr in Saxony, which has the same purposes as the Bavarian storm troops, is in close accord with the regular Reichswehr, on the other side of the Saxon-Bavarian frontier the storm troops are in advance as the Bavarian Reichswehr is being held back.

Actual fighting between North and South Germany would create a dubious situation in the Reichswehr.

"Back" of the political movements in Germany for many weeks has been the scheme of Stresemann to found an industrial feudal state based on his Reichswehr bayonets.

SEPARATIST CAMPAIGN IS FACING COLLAPSE

Movement, It Is Said, Will Fail Unless Supported by General Population.

the Associated Press.
COBLENTZ, Nov. 1.—Unless there is some indication soon that efforts to establish an independent Rhine and state have the support of the general population, the present separatist movement may dissolve of itself within a few weeks, it was said today in official circles.

Several proposals for compromise have been advanced, it is understood. One of these provides that the autonomous state under the Reichsrat Joseph Matthes, Premier of the provisional Government of the Rhine and the Rhine, asserts he will not consider any such proposition.

"It will be a free, independent Rhineland or nothing," Matthes said.

There are many representative citizens who favor autonomy, but they will have nothing to do with the present movement on the ground that the leaders are not representative of the business men and lack the confidence of the people.

At French press headquarters it was said to be quite apparent that the present movement is not backed by representative leaders.

No Backing by Peasants.

It was at first believed that the separatist movement was spontaneous, it was explained by French officials, but later developments caused many to change their opinions. The officials admitted that peasants and townsmen had not come forward to offer their approval of the republic, as the leaders contend they would.

In view of those circumstances, it is explained, and unless strong leaders come to the front with hopes of bringing a distinct majority over to their side, the present movement may fade gradually from public notice.

If the separatists should fall to gain favor, it is said, "the French themselves may take a hand and clean out the element now installed in the town halls in various parts of the Rhineland."

At present, the attitude here and in Cologne toward the separatists is that the movement is being carried on merely by mobs that are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MURDERED WOMAN SEEN NEAR SHACK WHERE SON LIVES

Man Tells of Directing Mrs. Katherine Rennard and Seeing Her Go to Within 100 Feet of House.

UMBRELLA FOUND IN CREEK NEARBY

Prints of Woman's Shoes Also on Premises—Coroner's Inquest Likely to Be Reopened.

Investigation of the supposed murder of Mrs. Katherine Rennard, 65 years old, of Cincinnati, O., whose body was found last Saturday in a creek in a lonely section between Maplewood and Brentwood, has resulted in findings that may cause the reopening of the Coroner's inquest, at which a verdict of homicide at the hands of an unknown person was returned.

Findings thus far in the investigation as announced today at the Sheriff's office in Clayton, are:

That the body of Mrs. Rennard was found within 100 feet of the house, which is more than mile-northwest of the spot where the body was found.

Mary Pickford Joins Her in Angry Denials That She Vamped Fairbanks

MISS EVELYN BRENT.

MARY PICKFORD and her husband, Douglas Fairbanks, announced in Los Angeles yesterday that they have instructed attorneys to begin criminal proceedings against the editors of a New York film magazine that printed a story in its current number to the effect that a separation is imminent between them because of Fairbanks' attentions to Miss Evelyn Brent, his leading woman in his latest film. They denounce the statement as a malicious falsehood. Miss Brent, who came from England to appear in the film, joins in the denunciation and in the suit.

Miss Pickford says she picked Miss Brent for the role; that she entirely approves of her, and that the story in the New York magazine is very unjust to the young British actress who is her friend as well as a charming woman and whom she is trying to help in every way in her American career.

It had been established that Mrs. Rennard reached Union Station the morning of Oct. 18, for an annual visit with her son. The man who informed the Sheriff's office that he directed a woman resembling her, said that it occurred between 9:30 and 10:30 a. m. on the 18th. Mrs. Rennard had been accustomed to get off a Kirkwood-Ferguson car at Union Station, go northwest to her son's home, and the informant said a footbridge over the stream had collapsed, and she had to find a new route. He said he escorted her until she was within 200 feet of the Rennard cabin, when he turned and left.

Body Found Mile Away.

The place where the body was found was some distance southeast of Rennard road and the car tracks, and more than a mile southeast of Rennard's home. A pasture surrounded the spot and automobile wheel tracks were discovered in its soft ground.

The man who escorted Mrs. Rennard said she carried an umbrella, but the Associated Press said the umbrella was found near the shack, also the footprints nearby.

These findings, coupled with the shallowness of the creek, a branch of the River des Peres, and previous indications of robbery and murder, led to a theory that Mrs. Rennard might have been attacked by a robber as she approached the cabin and that her assailant drove the body to the place where the creek was. It is not believed that the creek, even with recent rains, reached a depth sufficient to float a body for more than a mile.

Theory as to Assailant.

It has been suggested that a man might have been lurking in the vicinity of the cabin and might have been the assailant. Mrs. Rennard's neck and left wrist were found to have been broken and there was a bruise and cut on her left temple. Coroner Bracy believed she had been killed before her body was thrown into the creek.

Ronald, who is in Cincinnati for the mother's funeral, has concurred in the theory of robbery and murder, and his lawyer usually carried $400 when she visited him.

He also said that he did not learn of his mother's plan to visit him until two days after she arrived, because rains had prevented his going to the rural mail box that had been received a letter announcing the date when he would meet her at Union Station and she would have been.

There was $15 in bills inside the house when the body was found and coat pockets apparently had been cut. Mrs. Rennard's relatives claim she had no personal or small amount of personal things. For 10 years she has been living apart from her two daughters there. Mrs. Frank A. Del Vecchio, Mrs. Ray Myers and Mrs. Edward Kusel, Del Vecchio is a tailoress, Myers a machinist and a clothing salesman.

"Please Reprint" Notices.

The bills were from manufacturers and jobbers in various parts of the country, who invoiced goods which had been shipped to the McKnight Co., and who said "please reprint" in all the way that anxious creditors know how to say it. The bills were of recent date, and most of them indicated that previous requests for settlement had been made.

The goods listed were dry goods of various kinds, stationery, plain and fancy apparel, notions and sundries, but the only goods actually found on the premises were a few sample ice cream cones. They were in the filing cabinet.

There was no gas or electric lighting fixtures in the place, and no telephone. Bills for express service and for telegrams were among the duns in the waste basket.

One of the inspectors making a preliminary visit to the place several days ago, found a girl in charge. She did not appear to be in the confidence of the management, and she remarked to the inspector that the only correspondence of the concern appeared to be incoming bills.

"Any received bills?" the inspect-

PRINCESS SUES SISTER FOR STEALING HUSBAND

Former Mrs. Wendell Phillips Says Von Der Lipp-Lipski Was Won From Her.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Princess Nicholas von der Lipp-Lipski, who claims she is descended from King Simon VI of Westphalia, has succumbed to the charms of his wife's sister, according to an affidavit filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office by the Princess von der Lipp-Lipski, who before her marriage to the Prince was Mrs. Wendell Phillips, head of the Carry-On Association for Disabled Soldiers.

The Prince and Mrs. Phillips were married by civil ceremony, Sept. 15, 1922, and by religious ceremony May 12 of this year, they announced on June 6 last.

Now, it appears from the Princess' affidavit, her titled husband's affections had been won by his sister, Mrs. Gertrude Schroeder of 418 West 110th street.

The Princess, petitioning for an order permitting her to serve her sister by substitution in an action for alienation of affections, says:

"The defendant, who is my sister, has weaned the love and affection my husband bore me and for some time past endeavored and finally induced him to part from me."

On the morning of Oct. 2, she recites, having ascertained her husband was in her sister's apartment at the West 110th street address, she proceeded there with witnesses and found her sister and some of her husband's clothes.

She does not tell of seeing her husband there, but before entering she says she "heard his voice." It is believed that her husband had taken refuge in another room.

Princess von der Lipp-Lipski, who is the widow of Edward Weldon, 11 years old, son of R. G. Weldon, of North avenue, St. John's Station, is in St. John's Hospital in a critical condition from wounds inflicted when a shotgun was discharged by Louis A. Hoss, 41, into a group of boys playing Halloween pranks around Hoss' home near St. John's Station last night.

One of the shot pierced Edward's right eye and apparently passed through his head, as did another that entered through the mouth. A third pellet punctured his right ear.

It is believed the sight of the eye was destroyed, and that the eye may have to be removed, but this has not been determined definitely.

Hoss, a carpenter and painter, who was being held in jail at Clayton, pending the outcome of the boy's injuries, told the Post-Dispatch reporter today that the shotgun was an accident, saying he had wanted to fire above the boy's heads. He expressed regret, and seemed to be badly shaken by the occurrence.

"My wife and I had gone to bed when, about 8 o'clock, I heard a gang of kids outside my house and the sounds of gravel being thrown against the doors and windows. On Halloween two years ago, a rock broke a bedroom window and glass fell over my wife, so I wanted to frighten the boys away this time.

"I went outside, in my nightclothes, and saw the boys running. I intended to shoot into a telephone pole, above their heads, but I'm not used to handling a gun and it went off as I was pulling it up from the ground. The little Weldon boy is one of the finest little fellows I know, and plays around my house in summer, and I wouldn't have hurt him for anything."

Inspectors last evening was at the McKnight Mercantile Co., 1317 North Grand Boulevard. There the doors were kicked in, and a smaller collection of unpaid bills than that of the McKnight Co. was found, and nothing else. A. O. Dickerson, proprietor, has not been found by the inspectors.

The places raided Tuesday by inspectors and city detectives in charge of Robert A. Ward of the Postoffice Department were the Soap Products Co., 218 South First Street; Ludwig Remedy Co., United Auto Supply Co., 715 Pine street; St. Louis Merchandising Co., Jefferson Building, and Central Mercantile Co., same building. The men arrested on the first day were Edward Allen, Harold W. Trippett, John Lynam, John J. Brennan, Clay L. Schroeder and Benjamin DeWoskin. Their bonds have been fixed at $7500 each.

COUNTY ATTORNEY SUSPENDED

Oklahoma Official to Be Tried on Charges of Official Misconduct.
By the Associated Press
SHAWNEE, Ok., Nov. 1.—Claude Hendon, County Attorney of Pottawatomie County, has been suspended from office by District Judge Johnson pending his trial Nov. 5 on charges of official misconduct. The order for his temporary removal was issued on motion of the State Attorney General's department which has filed ousted proceedings against the county attorney.

He is charged with drunkenness, giving away whisky, possession of whisky, accepting money for dismissal of court cases, releasing county prisoners without authority and attempting to prevent an election. County Attorney Hendon said his "Ku Klux Klan" enemies are responsible for the ouster action.

Says Allenru Surely Conquers Rheumatism

Winchester, Ky., Citizen Cheerfully Recommends This Wonderful Remedy to All Sufferers.

His letter follows: "Burns Avenue, Winchester, Ky. had severe rheumatism for three months; tried several remedies without receiving any benefit whatever. A friend advised me to try ALLENRU as it had cured him. Thought three bottles would do the trick of this city. When I began taking this medicine I was unable to do any work. I could neither dress myself nor raise my hand to comb my hair. I am now almost well and feel confident this last of the three bottles I am now taking will completely cure me. I can cheerfully recommend this truly wonderful remedy to any rheumatic sufferer." Signed Asa E. Keen.

ALLENRU has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and violent and where the patient was helpless. Druggists guarantee the first nine little bottles show appreciable results or money back in every instance. All druggists can supply you.

MUCH SHOOTING AFTER

NEGRO HOLDS UP BUTCHER

Robber Chased by Man of Own Race, Also by Detectives and Fired On, but Escapes. There was a miniature artillery duel in the vicinity of Compton and Chouteau avenues about dusk last evening, which many residents may have mistaken as the work of Hal-town celebrants, but which was no sham battle to the participants.

It all started when a negro, about 20 years old, entered the butcher shop of Roe McDonald at 2222 Chouteau avenue and purchased a variety of meats and cakes.

"Is that all?" inquired McDonald, as his customer paused.

"Well, not quite all," replied the negro, drawing a revolver. "Just hold 'em up while I look in the damper." He took out the change in the cash register, amounting to about $5, and punctuated his discovery with two shots into the floor.

A woman, who had entered the shop, ran out screaming and her cries attracted Walter Bush, a negro, living at 7218 Chouteau avenue. He obtained a revolver and chased the intruder a block from the shop, firing six shots at his erstwhile target who fled suddenly and fired four shots in return. There were no casualties.

Three detectives in a police automobile, swoing into the line of action and entrenched themselves at both ends of an alleyway into which the negro had darted. And the detectives closed in more than a dozen shots were exchanged, but the intruder had vanished, apparently unharmed.

Man Dies From Effects of Gas. George Kramer, 122 Lemay Ferry road, St. Louis County, died at the City Hospital this morning from the effects of gas. He was found unconscious in his room on Sept. 29 and continued in a stupor until his death. It is not known whether the gas was turned on accidentally or intentionally.

New Safe Way to Remove Teeth Stains.

Marvelous Liquid Discovery Bleaches
Dark Teeth White, Instantly!

A new formula liquid has been discovered which dissolves teeth stains in a jiffy giving even the dullest teeth a charming whitening lustre. This new liquid called Bleachoid acts quickly on the discolored teeth white. You just brush your teeth with a few drops and before your very eyes they acquire a clear, clean, whiteteness that even an hour's scouring by a dentist could not give.

It is vitally important that only a safe, mild preparation like Bleachoid be used as strong teeth bleaches are especially subject to staining and decay. Bleachoid is absolutely safe in every way, for it simply bleaches the stains off the teeth. It cannot affect the enamel in any way. Gently rub the liquid on the stained surfaces from the surface of the teeth. It need never be used. If you want whitening while your teeth get Bleachoid today.

At all good drug stores, such as Kehler Drug Co., Judson & Ralph Drug Store, East End Drug Co., and Wolff-Wilson Drug Co.

How to Stop Sour Stomach

Chronic With Many People—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Bring Quick Comfort—Sweetens and Stop Acid, Sour Risings and Such Dyspeptic Distress.

When the fact is considered that even careful people, the low, dry, acid attacks of indigestion, no argument is needed to recommend the best means of relief. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used by lawyers, doctors, teachers, by business men, high liveries, society women, industrial workers, clerks, and the worst abused stomachs in the world, those of a host of travelers.

For thirty years people have learned that they may eat what they like or drink what they like, and no matter what the condition of the stomach, if due to dyspepsia, these wonderful tablets stop gassiness and sour risings, they give the stomach the alkaline effect which overcomes acidity and thus they either avoid distress after eating or else they quickly relieve it. Be fortified. Get a 60-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and arm yourself against indigestion.

Getting Too Fat? Try This—Reduce

People who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is the result of the experience of those who know. Ask your druggist for Marmola Perfume, the world's best fragrance. One dollar is the price the world over. Get them from your own druggists or send price direct to the Marmola Company, 1000 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich. By doing this you will be safe from harmful drugs and be able to reduce to a slim figure without starvation diet or tiresome exercise.

Defendants Alleged to Have Swindled Thousands of Investors Out of Several Million Dollars.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Federal grand jury yesterday returned an indictment charging use of the mails to defraud investors against seven members of four brokerage concerns.

An investigation into the affairs of George W. Field & Co., George W. Morse & Co., Hall & Co., and Field Brothers, Federal Attorney Hayward said, disclosed that thousands of investors in New England and in New Jersey and New York had been swindled during the last few years.

Those indicted were: George W. Morse, George W. Field, employees earlier in their careers of Charles A. Stoneham & Co.; Ralph L. Morse, Leon A. Field, Louis T. Hall, Charles A. Anderson and Wilfred Crighton.

Field and Morse, Haywood said, were then leading figures in the scheme whereby several million dollars were obtained, but they kept themselves in the background.

The indictment charged the seven brokers with having carried out the alleged fraud scheme from the beginning of 1918 until about May, 1922, the brokers allegedly converting to their own use money given them for investment.

WOMAN CONVICTED OF MURDER

Sentenced to 10 Years for Killing Former Prize Fighter.

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 1.—Margaret Allister, 21 years old, who shot and killed Paul Harrold, a former prize fighter and saloon keeper, here last summer, was found guilty by a jury in Circuit Court last night on a charge of second degree murder. She was sentenced to 10 years in the State Penitentiary. The State had asked the death penalty.

Miss Allister admitted the shooting, but testified that she fired in self-defense. She said she loved Murdoch and feared that he intended to return to his wife, from whom he had been separated.

Woman's Skeleton in Burned Church

THE SELLOWS, Ala., Nov. 1.—County and city officials are unable to explain the finding of the skeleton of a young woman in the charred remains of a small negro church four miles from the city. According to Coroner S. T. Hardin, the skull of the woman had been crushed and ribs broken before the church burned. Police have failed to find any woman missing from home. The body was so charred that it was impossible to tell whether it was that of a white or negro.

EBAN GANGSTER FINED $200
ON CONCEALED WEAPON CHARGE

Edore Londe, Arrested Many Times,
Pleads Guilty and Another Charge
Is Nolle Prossed.

Edore Londe, 22 years old, an Egan gangster, was today fined $200 and costs by Circuit Judge Grimm, on his plea of guilty to a charge of carrying concealed weapons. A charge of possession of burglar tools against him was nolle prossed.

Assistant Circuit Attorney Roland L. Johnson said that the Circuit Attorney's office, in its eagerness to get a conviction against Londe, was willing to drop the burglar-tool charge in consideration of his plea in the other case. He has been arrested several times on concealed weapon charges and as a suspected bank robber, but was later released.

In imposing the fine, Judge Grimm warned Londe that "the pitcher that goes to the well often gets brot-ered" and advised him that if he conduct the would bring him into court, Londe was arrested the night of March 3 with two other gangsters in his automobile. A revolver was found in his pocket and a hammer, pinch bar and punch were found in the car.

VACCINATION CLINIC HELD AT UNION STATION CLOSES

6400 Whites and Negroes From South Vaccinated Since It Was Established July 29.

The municipal vaccination clinic, which has been operated by the Health Department in a reconstructed coach at Union Station since July 29, closed at midnight with a record of more than 6400 vaccinations of white and negro arrivals from the South.

Dr. Martin C. Woodruff, chief diagnostician for the Health Department, in charge of the clinic, said the decreasing number of persons coming from the South made the clinic no longer necessary.

Man Found Dead in Doorway.

An unidentified man about 50 years old was found dead today in a doorway at the southeast corner of Seventh and Wash streets. In his pockets were found the card of a violinist residing on Garrison avenue, a bottle of patent medicine and 14 cents. The violinist, when questioned, said he had never seen or heard of the man. The police description follows: Five feet 6 inches tall, weighed 130 pounds, gray hair blue eyes, was wearing a brown

SIMPLER TAX BLANKS
FOR WAGE EARNERSNew Sheets for Federal Income Returns Tells Definitely When to Return Them.New income tax blanks to be used by "wage and salary earners" in making out their returns this year at the Federal Building, have arrived. They are simpler than those of former years.Instead of four pages of questions there are but two. The report consists of a single sheet, printed on both sides. The "wage and salary earners" have been separated from the "professional and business personal" as the latter must make return of another type of form.Here is one example of simplification which goes to show that the Government is getting along in its effort to make itself understood by the names:The old form said: "Returns must be filed not later than the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the taxable period."Now what did that mean to the ordinary citizen? What does the taxable period close? Does the taxable period ever close? Many citizens, having never seen a taxable period end, gave up when it came to counting two months and 15 days backward.The new form says: "File your return with the Internal Revenue Collector for your district on or before March 15, 1924."There! Whoever thought the Government could do it? However, even these new blanks have limitations. They do not give instructions as to where money to pay one's tax may be obtained.Income Tax Forms for Employers Now AvailableCollector of Internal Revenue Assistant J. Hellmich today announced that Forms 1099 and 1096, for filing returns of information for comparison with income tax returns, will be at the office in the Federal building and branches at Hannibal and Cape Girardeau.The forms are for firms and individuals employing large forces, requiring them to list all payments over $1000 of the preceding calendar year. A separate return of information for each employee whose salary is in excess of $1000 a year is required. Banks and similar organizations are required to report interest amounts paid depositors in excess of $1000. This information is checked against the individuals tax return. The filing period is from Jan 1 to March 15, 1924.

ACTS AS OWN COUNSEL; GETS
MAXIMUM FINE IN LIQUOR CASE

Former Saloon Owner Said Matter
Was So Simple That Lawyer Wasn't Necessary.

Pete Zeller, former proprietor of a saloon at 907 North Vandeventer avenue, went to trial before a jury in Federal Court today on a charge of violating the Volstead law, and acted as his own counsel, after telling Judge Frank J. Murphy that he had not retained a lawyer because the case was so simple he thought it unnecessary. At the conclusion of the trial the jury deliberated 5 minutes on their verdict of guilty and then Judge Paris assessed the maximum punishment, a fine of $500 and costs.

Prohibition agents exhibited a large flat copper tank which they said they took from a wall where it was concealed in Zeller's place and which had contained about 10 gallons of whisky. They also displayed a bottle containing a dirty liquid which they said was whisky that Zeller had attempted to throw away when they entered on the raid and the pretext of searching for liquor.

which was mopped up from beneath the bar with a towel and then transferred to the bottle.

Zeller, in his own defense, asserted he had just regained possession of the barroom because a purchased had failed to make prompt payment on money due him, and only a week at the old stand" two days when the raiders entered. He knew nothing of the presence of the tank, he said, and gave it as his version that someone else had placed it where it was found. The spilled whisky story of the agents, he said, was fiction. The jury, however, seemed to disbelieve his version.

Sore Throat

NEARLY all forms of sore throat are due to germ infection. Prompt relief therefore cannot be obtained without the use of a powerful germicide. Although more powerful in the presence of saliva than pure Carbolic Acid, Zonite can be freely used as a gargle or throat spray at sufficient strength to destroy all disease germs with which it comes in contact.

The promptness with which Zonite relieves most throat afflictions has been a revelation to tens of thousands of users of this new form of antiseptic.

DANGER IN COLDS
If Neglected, They Will Often Develop Serious Illness

Take Father John's Medicine
There is lurking danger in every cold because, if neglected, it may attack the breathing tract. Prompt action should be taken when a cold develops.

Begin taking Father John's Medicine right away. This old-fashioned family medicine, whose basis is cod liver oil scientifically prepared with other ingredients, soothes and heals the breathing tract and at the same time builds fighting strength to fight off the cold. Father John's Medicine is guaranteed free from nerve-deadening drugs and stimulants.

ACQUITTED OF MURDER
CHARGE BY ORDER OF COURT

Frank Monahan Freed of Complicity in Killing of Theodore Sanders Last March.

A jury in the case of Frank Monahan, 415A South Twenty-third street, charged with first degree murder for the killing March 24 last of Theodore Sanders, who resided in the flat below Monahan's, was directed to return a verdict of acquittal at the close of the State's evidence yesterday by Circuit Judge Sanders' mutilated body was found in his room with a bloody ax near it. Monahan was arrested asleep in his room upstairs.

Sanders' mother, Mrs. Almira Sanders, testified that her son, Monahan, and Daniel F. Tracy had been drinking together. Tracy and Monahan left, she said, and a few minutes later she found the body. She said Monahan had befriended her as well as her son. Monahan, when arrested, had Tracy's vest, which bore spots like bloodstains, but his own clothing was clean.

In a statement to police he admitted drinking with Tracy and Sanders, but said he knew nothing of the murder. He and Tracy were indicted together, but took a severance. Tracy was acquitted by a jury June 7.

Woman, 70, Burned to Death. By the Associated Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 1.—Trapped by flames which destroyed her home near White Hall, Mrs. Eliza Owens, 70 years old, was burned to death last night.

Red Seal Concert and Operatic

		DOUBLE-FACED Number	List Price
Sonatas in B Minor—Finale (Chopin)	Piano Solo	Olga Samaroff	6419 $2.00
Nocturne (Grieg)	Piano Solo	Olga Samaroff
Melodies of indescribable beauty pervade Chopin's B Minor Sonatas throughout. Grieg's Nocturne is one of the most poetic and imaginative fantasies of the lonely Northern composer.
Faust—Waltz from Kermesse Scene	Stokowski and Mignon—Gavotte (Tchaik.)	944 1.50
Stokowski calls the Faust waltz the "lightest and gayest waltz in the world," and the gavotte "probably the daintiest that ever was written."
The World is Waiting for the Sunrise	Reinald Werrenrath	951 1.50
Rose in the Bud (Baron-Forsell)	Reinald Werrenrath
To hear a frankly popular song interpreted by a great artist is an experience to both the musician and the layman. Here are two sung in rich baritones with both strength and tenderness.

Light Vocal Selections

When Clouds Have Vanished and Skies are Blue	Elliott Shaw	19152	.75
Why Don't My Dreams Come True?	Henry Burr
Simple yet emotional songs of common life—of common aspirations and understandings. Both are in waltz time. "When Clouds Have Vanished" introduces "Love's Old Sweet Song."
Complainin' (It's Human Nature to Complain)	Eddie Hunter	19154	.75
I Got	Eddie Hunter
The first Victor record by this singer of negro comedy songs. Both songs are characteristic and sung in half-spoken style.

Humorous Monologue

In a Shoe Store	Marie Cahill	45370	1.00
The Symphony Concert	Marie Cahill

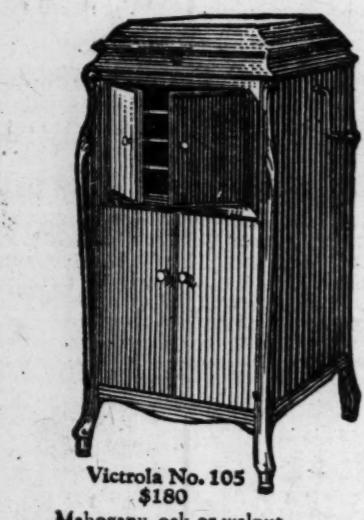

This clever and dainty comedienne has found two new sources for her delicate and at times satiric humor. You will recognize in her impersonations a type of the Eternal Feminine.

Dance Records

I Love You—Fox Trot	Paul Whiteman and His Orchestra	19151	.75
The Life of a Rose—Fox Trot	Dornberger and His Orch.
Clear, melodious fox trot. "I Love You" has the wonderful Whiteman smoothness and finish. "The Life of a Rose" has high sweet harmonies almost like a women's choir.
Cut Yourself a Piece of Cake—Fox Trot	Paul Whiteman and His Orchestra	19155	.75
Oh, You Little Sun-Uv-Er-Gun—Fox Trot	Benson Orchestra of Chicago
"Cut Yourself a Piece of Cake" which you have heard as a song is now given in dance form. "Sun-Uv-Er-Gun" is an excellent companion, with a startling bit of piano work.
Just a Girl that Men Forget—Waltz	The Troubadours	19156	.75
Steal a Little Kiss While Dancing—Waltz	Green-Arden Orchestra
Two waltz numbers. "Just a Girl that Men Forget" you already know in song form. "Steal a Little Kiss While Dancing" has saxophone and xylophone effects in fine contrast.

Your Hungry Furnace

What an appetite for coal! Shovel full after shovel full goes into its cavernous mouth. And all you get in return is a big fuel bill, smoky heat, and loads of ashes.

Satisfy that Furnace. Feed it ST. LOUIS BY-PRODUCT, or ST. LOUIS GAS COKE, and feel the difference. Besides giving a greater volume of CLEAN, healthful heat, a ton of coke will go as far as a ton and a half of soft coal or a ton of hard coal. Burns equally well in any furnace—hot air, steam or hot water.

Call Main 83. Our fuel expert will show you—free of charge—the most profitable way to burn coke in your furnace.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always be true to the cause of justice, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LIMITS OF FEDERAL POWER.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
DAVID JAYNE HILL, in an article on "American Co-operation for World Peace," in the Saturday Evening Post, Oct. 27, 1923, states:

"It is an axiom of American constitutional law that the Government of the United States does not possess the qualities of a sovereign, but is the delegated agent of the sovereign people for the purposes set forth in the Preamble to the Constitution of the United States. The pretense sometimes put forth that the will of the Government of the United States is a sovereign will is based upon the assumption that the whole content of sovereignty was conveyed in the organization of this Government, which is contrary to the fact."

The powers of the Government, in the case of the United States, having been expressly delegated, and all others having been expressly reserved to the states or the people, every officer of the United States, by his oath of office to support and defend the Constitution, is bound not to transcend the powers constitutionally accorded to him. An attempt by a portion of the electorate to intimidate him, by creating in his mind the impression of a strong popular movement for such superconstitutional action which if not obeyed might become law, would be not only a blow to organized representative government, but, so far as it became effective, would amount to the subversion of it."

Does that not only condemn the Volstead act, but also every official who had any part in its passage and also in its pretended enforcement since, as well as the Antisubversive League?

Further, section 8, paragraph 4, of the Constitution only grants to the Government the power to "regulate commerce with foreign nations and among the several states." If Mr. Hill is correct, from what source does the Government receive its authority to forbid any competition in the transportation of the mail?

Also, on what theory does the Government have any authority to forbid all competition with river boats operated by it, as far as either and privately owned boats are concerned, when it only authorizes in the matter is to "regulate commerce—not to own, operate or monopolize commerce?"

ROOMING-HOUSE PROBLEMS.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

S. LOUIS should have a Rooming-House Keepers' Protective Association. When you stop to consider the large number of people who are housed in rooming houses, you will realize that the rooming-house business is as great an enterprise as the hotel business. I am most familiar with the West End district between Forest Park boulevard and Suburban tracks, Grand boulevard and Taylor. In this district nearly every house is a rooming house and whole families live in one or two rooms. They rent a room and expect gas, electricity, heat, continuous hot water, telephone, clean linen weekly and laundry privileges for from $5 to $7 per week. The majority of houses in this locality rent on a basis of $10 per month per room, unfurnished. Then, let me ask, how a person can furnish them and provide heat, gas, electricity, telephone, bed linen, laundry privileges, for $5 to $7 per week? A hotel room costs $2 to $4 per night, and, provided the person in a rooming house with housekeeping privileges, be worth $10 to $12 per week? Other cities are asking and getting it.

If people who make a business of renting furnished rooms would organize, have membership cards that would entitle them to a discount on coal, laundry, furniture and household necessities, and possibly on gas and electricity, raise the price of their rooms to a decent price and stand together as a single person, there wouldn't be so many half-starved rooming-house keepers who have to keep their doors locked against collectors. They could live and pay their way.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAUS.

In announcing his intention to ask the Board of Aldermen to pass the pending bill to provide for the establishment of a city free employment bureau Director of Public Welfare Cunliffe calls attention to the fees paid certain private employment bureaus, which he says are exorbitant. He says that a young woman who was for a time employed in his office and who could not hold her position because of incompetency was compelled to pay to one of these agencies her entire first month's salary, so that she got nothing for the three weeks during which she worked.

The speech has also stirred up the National Catholic Welfare Conference at New York whose general secretary, Father John F. Burke, says:

Ervans states that to the Catholic hierarchy of the United States, the President of the United States is subordinate to the priesthood at Rome; that the parochial schools of the country are a proof of "divided" allegiance on the part of Catholics. He offers no proof of these statements, refuted completely, if refutation were needed, by the official declaration of the American Bishops on America's entrance into the war; by the thousands of Catholic dead buried overseas; by the fact that the first American officer killed was educated in a Catholic school, and the last American killed was a Catholic priest.

The Klan's propaganda consists of unproved and improbable assertions, calculated to prejudice the minds of those persons, unfortunately too numerous, who swallow unproved assertions vigorously and frequently made. Our such stuff is fanatical fed, and its dupes are a dangerous legion.

Attention has frequently been called to the greed of some employment agencies, but nothing comes of it. Article 9 of the Revised Code of St. Louis, under the head "Intelligence Offices," defines the duties of employment agents. Those agents who conduct a general office, not for the sole employment of domestic servants, must pay a license of $300 per annum and give a $500 bond for the performance of their duties to the public. The only duties defined are to accept no fee unless position is secured, to give truthful information regarding positions, and not to "demand or receive any unusual or exorbitant fee" for obtaining a position for an applicant. The whole of the first month's salary would seem to be an exorbitant fee, especially where the agency fails to discover beforehand

THAT EXCELSIOR SPRINGS HOSPITAL.

When the Government entered into negotiations with Liv Morse of Excelsior Springs for the purchase of his residence to be used as a hospital for disabled soldiers it invited just such a sequel as the papers are now printing.

Morse has been a professional politician of the so-called practical school. He has never pretended, so far as his political activities are concerned, to be anything else. When he appeared as a principal in the Lowden fund scandal of the 1920 campaign he was strictly in character. That unsavory mess involved a good many more or less prominent Missouri Republicans, some of whom were distressed by the exposure. It never disturbed Liv Morse. That was his kind of politics. Nor did this stigma impair his standing at Washington. It was through his influence with Senators and Representatives that Morse closed the sale after the Hospitalization Board had reported adversely on the proposition.

While Mr. Gompers is personally interested in maintaining the present form of labor organization his opponents have yet to show that the interest of either labor or the nation would be served by a shift to the industrial unit plan or that the concentration of labor into a political party of its own, as in England, would be widely beneficial.

On the stand Morse was a rambling, garrulous witness. The members of the Senate Inquiry Committee were confused by his verbosity. He was profuse with explanations, but it was next to impossible to get facts out of him. Eventually, though, certain facts emerged. One fact is that the homestead which Morse agreed to convey to the Government at a price not to exceed $90,000 was assessed at between $10,000 and $12,000.

Another fact, which accounts for the persistence with which Morse pressed this sale on a reluctant Government is found in a characteristic reply. "I don't want to be hypocritical," he said. "I own some business blocks and I thought that if a hospital were located in that section and a lot of new people brought in, I would be able to increase my rentals."

Spoken like a spoilsmen. There were profits to be had quite outside of the particular piece of property he was selling. And Morse apparently had no compunction whatever about using the disabled soldier in the cause of Morse's pocket.

To what extent this particular transaction is typical of the methods and business practice of the Veterans Bureau is not known. It must be known. The Senate Inquiry Committee must probe to the bottom of the charges of "waste, inefficiency and extravagance" in the bureau's management. Other deals must be investigated. Other Morses, if there are any, must tell their stories. But whatever waste or extravagance may be shown, public revulsion will focus on the unpardonable wrong in what has not been done at Excelsior Springs. It was disclosed in the following interrogation of Morse by Chairman Reed:

Has the hospital ever been used?
No, sir.
Have there ever been any patients in it?
No, sir.
Is there any kitchen to it?
No; there were no plans for that.
Is it to be a kitchenless hospital?
Of course, the terms of the lease only provided what I was to do.

So, two years and eight months after the Government's purchase of Morse's property on March 3, 1921, no disabled soldier has been cared for in this hospital, nor could be cared for. In truth, there is no hospital for disabled soldiers at Excelsior Springs. There is only a blueprint promise of Morse by Chairman Reed:

Has the hospital ever been used?

No, sir.

Have there ever been any patients in it?

No, sir.

Is there any kitchen to it?

No; there were no plans for that.

Is it to be a kitchenless hospital?

Of course, the terms of the lease only provided what I was to do.

As an example of a successful business man entering politics comparatively late in life and doing most valuable public service, this Canadian-Scotch ironmaster points the way to others who might do as well. He brought to the task of legislation, as member of Parliament for 20 years, and the greater tasks of Government finance as Chancellor of the Exchequer under Lloyd George during the World War, and then of guiding national policies for seven months as Premier, a mind activated by all that was best in the promotion of a great successful private business.

Without business experience, Lloyd George needed just such a clear-headed, unemotional, firm-jawed adviser and co-worker. "Andy," as his fellow members in Parliament affectionately called him, had the reputation of never knowing when he was licked. He is reported to have remarked to Lloyd George, then Premier, probably during a golf match: "Davy, make a great team. When you soar into the clouds on your rhetorical kite, I am always on the ground holding the string fast to facts." No wonder that Lloyd George misses such a man and such a friend.

He was a man of the people, unassuming, ready for any task, capable. Any country would have been glad to have had him for a son, of whom his own and succeeding generations might be proud.

Eugene V. Debs questions Mr. Ford's intellectual capacity to serve as President. On that platform Debs might get more votes than he ever got before.

SMOKE THEM OUT.

Rabbi Simon Glazer of the Great Synagogue of New York has challenged Imperial Wizard Evans to a joint debate on whether Jewish Americans are to be considered Americans or, according to the Klan, whether they must first be converted as Americans. The challenge is an outcome of the speech made by Evans at the big Klan rally at Dallas, Tex., Oct. 24. Evans has refused to enter the debate.

The speech has also stirred up the National Catholic Welfare Conference at New York whose general secretary, Father John F. Burke, says:

Ervans states that to the Catholic hierarchy of the United States, the President of the United States is subordinate to the priesthood at Rome; that the parochial schools of the country are a proof of "divided" allegiance on the part of Catholics. He offers no proof of these statements, refuted completely, if refutation were needed, by the official declaration of the American Bishops on America's entrance into the war; by the thousands of Catholic dead buried overseas; by the fact that the first American officer killed was educated in a Catholic school, and the last American killed was a Catholic priest.

The Klan's propaganda consists of unproved and improbable assertions, calculated to prejudice the minds of those persons, unfortunately too numerous, who swallow unproved assertions vigorously and frequently made. Our such stuff is fanatical fed, and its dupes are a dangerous legion.

But their leaders should be made to prove their assertions or be held up to public ignominy. Smoke them out. Make them come before the public and show cause why they are trying to divide America into warring factions, when internal peace and unity are essential to the existence of the nation.

President Coolidge is cultivating the good will of the politicians, the newspapers and the financiers. That might have sufficed once to win an election, but times may have changed.

whether or not the applicant fits the job, such failure being followed by dismissal.

The law as it stands is of very little value to the employment seeker. Employers, however, can help to bring about better conditions by refusing to use the agencies that charge exorbitant fees. And both employers and workers can get together without trouble by using the want ads, or, if they prefer, the free employment agencies.

THE GOMPERS PLATFORM.

The "grand old man" of American labor, Mr. Gompers, passed through St. Louis yesterday from his latest and probably most complete triumph over the faction in organized labor which opposes his principles of organization. "The Portland convention," he said to the Post-Dispatch, "served notice to the world that American labor will improve the economic conditions of the American worker through the orderly processes of our republic."

While Mr. Gompers is personally interested in maintaining the present form of labor organization his opponents have yet to show that the interest of either labor or the nation would be served by a shift to the industrial unit plan or that the concentration of labor into a political party of its own, as in England, would be widely beneficial.

GEN. HALLER INSPECTS
TROOPS AT BARRACKSAt City Club Luncheon He Says
U. S. and Poland Strive for Same Ideal—Peace.

Gen. Joseph Haller, commander of the armies of Poland, on the second day of his visit to St. Louis, attended a luncheon at the New Cathedral this morning, made an inspection of troops at Jefferson Barracks, addressed the City Club at luncheon and attended a box party at the Olympia Theater. This evening he will address constituents at Polish Hall, 1449 Cass avenue, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Marion Wachowiak at their home, 3838 Waterman avenue, and depart at 4:45 p. m. for Springfield, Ill., where he will lay a wreath on Lincoln's tomb.

The General is touring America to establish a closer bond of popular understanding between Poland and the United States.

AMERICANS AIDED POLAND.

The General, at the City Club luncheon, following a short history of Poland's struggle for liberty, told of the triumvirate enshrined in Polish homes: "Washington and America, Lafayette and France, and Poland and Poland are over the hearts of every home in Poland," he explained. "When I first met American troops on the Western Front, the officers told me that as the Poles had helped America in her fight for freedom, so the Americans would help Poland in her fight.

"After the World War, 25,000 Americans joined the Polish forces, most of them in the Kosciusko Battalion, to fight for Polish freedom and peace. To America, Poland gives the credit for her victory.

Thanks to America, Poland today is becoming a great nation of workers. We do not strive for military greatness, but rather to be great industrially. Although many armies have passed over Polish soil, devastating our industry, today Poland is not only raising and producing enough to feed our own people, but, in addition to that, exporting potato, meat, and wheat.

"Our blood is allied to yours. We strive for the same ideals—peace," speaks at C. C. Luncheon.

At a Chamber of Commerce luncheon yesterday, Gen. Haller related some of the things Poland has done to rid itself of enemies and establish itself as an economic as well as politically independent nation. He said:

"In every American city I have visited I have been invited to speak before the Chamber of Commerce. This is very fortunate for me because it gives me the opportunity to get a real idea of American business. When I return to my country I want to form a close union between our Chamber of Commerce and your splendid organizations.

"A thing I most dearly wish is that you should come to Poland and see us. We not only fought the great war, but since then others fought, Russia, Germany, Austria, Czechoslovakia, the Ukrainians and the Bolsheviks, and put down three revolutions in Silesia.

"We have accomplished the great work of unification of political parties within Poland. We have organized government and industry, and we have reconstructed 400,000 buildings destroyed in the warfare. Polish energy accomplished a frontier of peace. By that I mean we have succeeded in making many commercial treaties—I call them treaties of peace. The last one was with Austria.

180,000 Men in Polish Army.

"I am happy to say that today our exports are greater than our imports, creating a favorable trade balance. We have great quantities of coal, forests, and timber. The great forests in Europe are in Poland. Last year we have also completely reorganized agriculture. Ours is an agricultural country and this was a necessity of national life. We have wheat. We are exporting sugar, rice, alcohol. We have succeeded in expanding a textile industry and are exporting its products to the East, to Russia, the Balkans, Turkey, and the last year to Great Britain. This was made possible by means of cheap labor.

"I must say frankly that we have no chemical industry. To create one will be a long and difficult task, but we will succeed in the end.

"We have no organization of war industries and cannot even make our own cannon.

"Today, we have 180,000 men in the army that is one-third of the force considered necessary for our safety. But training in the brave spirit of our neighbors we have no fear of any neighbor.

"The case of Egypt illustrates the case of our country. We feel that America and Poland are united by the same spirit of freedom. I am here as the guest of the American Legion and the Polish War Veterans' Association of America, and it is a great pleasure to be among my old comrades of the war."

Last night the General made an address at a banquet of the American Legion, Polish Veteran's Association, Military Order of the World War, and Reserve Officers' Association.

The chief result of the meeting seems to be a shifting of that bur-

British-directed officialdom to a Egyptian nationalists.

DOMINO WRINKLE CREAM

Our New Location
704-711 Frisco Bldg., 9th & Olive

Where we are better able to serve you than ever.

ADVERTISEMENT
WRINKLES QUICKLY BANISHED NEW WAY

Each One Gently Lifted Away

TIRIED lines, tiny crow's feet, deep seated wrinkles—these are now entirely uncorrected! For a minute now cream has been discovered which smooths them away, as if by a touch of a magic wand.

This new discovery is called Domino Wrinkle Cream. It is based on an ancient home principle. Most treatments merely try to conceal or cover up wrinkles. But this new treatment gets the underlying cause of wrinkles, removes it, and then does it away, revealing a new smooth and wonderfully youthful complexion. Even after the first few days' use, the face appears years younger looking.

Why let ugly lines and wrinkles rob you of your youthfulness and charm, when they can now be made to disappear so easily? Domino Wrinkle Cream is guaranteed to banish wrinkles, and when gently lifted away, revealing a new smooth and wonderfully youthful complexion. Even after the first few days' use, the face appears years younger looking.

May we were "done" by the movies, too. Come to us and add: "At any rate, we're done."

Some Pay in Full.

Some of the investors failed to make good their subscriptions to the amount of $25,000 for interests in the trust estate, which was to be a purely local institution, but was to spread the name of St. Louis throughout the country on the silver screen. Their failure to redeem their pledges was primarily responsible for the estate's troubles.

The trust estate was planned to have an income of $25,000, with which one feature film was to be made. Last April it was announced that $162,700 had been subscribed.

Announcement of the receivership was made here two days ago by George T. Priest, counsel for Cabanne, but efforts today to learn from him how much the feature film, "The Eternal Force," had cost to produce were unavailing. He said that the picture was completed, but was being kept off the market because a distributor was balking at contract terms. Marketing of the picture would bring in about $18,000 and relieve the financial embarrassment. Priest said. He characterized the receivership as a friendly suit to protect creditors.

"We're done with the movies!"

seems to be a prevalent exclamation among St. Louisans who took a flyer for friendship's sake and the hope of handsome profits in the William Christy Cabanne Motion Picture Trust, Limited, now in receivership in Federal Court at New York.

"Maybe we were 'done' by the movies, too," one of them added. "At any rate, we're done."

Taken Issue With Lloyd George.
By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The American Defense Society has made public a letter to David Lloyd George, taking issue with his public utterances in this country on German preparations on the ground that they were having the effect of "encouraging Germany to withhold co-operation in the liquidation of her obligations" and of "increasing existing differences between France and England."

MANNER IN WHICH BOY, 8, MET FATAL INJURY, IN DISPUTE

Sister of John Aguayo, Who Died After Being Struck by Vehicle, Says Playmates Pushed Him Under Truck.

John Aguayo, 8 years old, 100 Breman avenue, died today at the city hospital from injuries suffered when he fell or was pushed by two other boys under the wheels of a vehicle Tuesday afternoon on Breman avenue between Ninth and Eleventh streets.

Anita Aguayo, 10 years old, sister of the dead boy, says the vehicle was a meat truck and that he was pushed under the rear wheel by two companions.

Two small boys who witnessed the accident say John was stealing a ride on a horse-drawn meat wagon and fell under the rear wheel. Police are trying to settle whether it was a wagon or a truck and find the driver.

Man and Wife on Motor Cycle Are Injured.

Irving Jolly, 22 years old, 3438 Flinner avenue, and his wife, Bertha Jolly, were injured when the motor cycle on which they were riding collided with an automobile driven by Elmer Hoff, 1907 Dodier street, at Adelaide and Florissant avenues. They were taken to city hospital, where it was found Mrs. Jolly had a fractured skull, while Jolly had a bruised and cut.

SLOW TRUCK MAKES 7 STREET CARS LATE

Driver, Who Kept in Tracks for 18 Blocks, Fined and Called "Road-Hog."

It is not often that leisure driving meets with the disapproval of the constituted authorities. But when it is indulged in to an extent that seven street cars, filled with passengers intent upon their evening meal, are made to loaf along for 18 blocks, and get 14 minutes behind schedule, it is quite another thing.

Such an indulgence by Frank Lacqueument, who drives a milk-laden truck west on Easton avenue, when he got to Garrison avenue he steered the machine on to the car tracks and rolled along in the path they directed, slowly and comfortably.

Seven Cars, One Behind Other. The westbound Wellington car caught up with him. The motorman clanged his bell. Lacqueument remained undisturbed. Perhaps, thought the motorman, the driver was going to turn off at the next street intersection. But the driver didn't. So the motorman, perhaps a bit more impatiently, pounded again on his gong.

By this time another Wellington car was right on the heels of the first, and before long there was another in line, until seven yellow electric carriers, thronged with persons who thought they already had "called it a day," were ambling along in parade formation led by Lacqueument and his milk truck.

Motorman Causes Arrest. It might have been the atmosphere of bucolic calm lent by his pastoral cargo which caused the driver to ignore the metallic dong of the seven motorman's warnings, or perhaps Lacqueument thought they were cowbells. His defense was that he didn't hear them. Anyhow, when he reached Euclid avenue, he turned off the track. And the motorman jumped from his platform and had a nearby policeman explain to Lacqueument that he was in the largest city west of the Mississippi.

In addition to the $15 fine, the judge informed this placid driver that he was a "roadhog."

which his orchestra has made more than famous.

Now comes the Brunswick record of this tremendous song hit, with Isham Jones interpreting Gene Rodemich's and Larry Conley's inspired melody.

The Brunswick record of this entrancing dance music is so perfect, so clear, and so wonderfully responsive to every shading of the players, that it proves again the supreme mas-

FORDS GIVE $115,000 TO FUND

Senator Couzens. With $110,000, Largest Subscriber to Charity.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 1.—Senator James Couzens of Detroit has pledged $110,000 to the Community Fund, which is attempting to raise $2,500,000 this week for organized charitable work in Detroit. Couzens' subscription was the largest individual gift to the campaign fund.

Henry Ford pledged $50,000, while his son, Edsel, subscribed $55,000.

Panama President Not Coming.

By the Associated Press. PANAMA, Nov. 1.—President Porras today announced that it would be impossible for him to attend the centennial celebration of the proclamation of the Monroe doctrine at Richmond, Va. His proposed trip was called off because of a message today announcing the arrival of a French diplomatic mission for the inauguration of a memorial to French canal diggers.

D. W. ROSS' BOND OF $50,000 PAID

Night and Day Bank Depositors to Get Dividend of 7 Per Cent Soon.

The $50,000 bond of Donald W. Ross, formerly Special Deputy Commissioner of Finance in charge of the liquidation of Night and Day Bank affairs, who is under indictment for embezzlement of $170,000 of the funds has been paid by the National Surety Co.

This, together with cash on hand, will enable Commissioner of Finance Millspaugh to pay a 7 per cent dividend to the depositors. Millspaugh announced yesterday. He said he would prepare to make this payment immediately.

The liquidation is being pushed as rapidly as possible, said Millspaugh, and other dividends will be declared from time to time, when justified by cash receipts.

He recommended the National Surety Co. for prompt payment of the full amount of Ross' bond, which he remarked was paid within three weeks after proof of Ross' pilferings was submitted.

This guaranteed stomach corrective costs but a few cents at any drug store. Keep it handy!

Champions Eager to Box Here, Wire Mullen For Chance to Appear

IM MULLEN, matchmaker for the Angelic Club, departed for Chicago, last night to close arrangements for his next boxing show here on Nov. 27. Mullen said that two champions, Johnny Dundee and Joe Lynch, had wired asking for contests here on some future card.

Mullen is sponsoring a boxing show in Peoria, on Nov. 9, after which he will return to St. Louis and probably will open downtown offices.

Eddie Anderson, who was forced by an injury to retire from his fight with Ernie Gruenman in the sixth round, Tuesday night, at the Coliseum, yesterday had his wrist put in a plaster cast. He will not be able to box for more than a month, it was said.

LAYTON SCORES DOUBLE VICTORY AS REISELT SPLITS TWO GAMES

Johnson Layton, former holder of the world's three-champion billiard championship, climbed a step closer to the Interstate League leader, Reiselt, when he took two games from the Wakefield, Pa., tour here yesterday. Reiselt split even on two games with Heat at Philadelphia.

Layton was pressed closely by Wakefield in both afternoon and evening games, won the early game by running 6 and 3 in the last inninnes, taking the lead away from his opponent. The score was 50 to 44 and the match went 69 innings. In the evening, the players were staled at 49 each in the sixty-eighth inning. Wakefield had three successive misses in trying for the winning point. Layton missed in two innings and finally scored in the seventy-first inning.

E TERMINATOR FULLY RECOVERED FROM HURT TO RETURN TO TRACK

By Associated Press.—Exterminator, eight-year-old thoroughbred camion, which has performed remarkably well in racing at Tia Juana the latter part of this month, has been idle since last spring when Willis Sharp Kilmer's veteran strained a tendon. Kilmer said he had completely recovered, however, and is ready to add to his record as the "iron horse" of turf history.

Exterminator, popularly known as "old horse," had collected winnings of $20,000 with his record out of the running temporarily and was within $100 of the American record at that time held by Man O' War.

Since then Zev, the Rancocas stable's great gelding, has surpassed edge of the weakness of his pro- gress, opponent and the scheming out of the delivery of blows especially designed to prey on those weaknesses.

Man O' War's mark and added to his credit $265,073, according to revised figures, with a $50,000 engagement next Saturday in the Latonia championship.

I shall later devote an entire chapter to the so-called frank blows that have been developed by prize-fighters and give a history of their origin, which should prove of keen interest to followers of the sport.

The fighter today is fitted primarily to enter the ring and take top speed from the sound of the gong with the knowledge that the engagement ahead is to be of short duration. His nervous and physical condition is especially attuned to withstand short, violent attacks rather than it was in days past conditioned to endure the long, wear- ing down processes of the slow rep- titions.

With Nine Regulars Out, the Washington University Team Looks More Like a Two-some Than an Eleven

McGraw's Agent Here, Fails to Get Action in Hornsby Trade; Rickey to Go East Next Week

Dick Kinsella Brings List of Players for Breadon to Choose From, but Cards' Owner Said He Did Not See It—Giants' Boss Goes Abroad Nov. 11.

By Joseph F. Holland,

The bidding for Rogers Hornsby, dissatisfied star of the Cardinals, has developed into an open contest. The Chicago Cubs inaugurated the drive a week ago when President Bill Veeck and Manager Bill Killefer made separate trips here to sound out the Cardinal owners with respect to trading the man who has led the National League in batting for three years. Dick Kinsella, ambassador of the New York Giants, followed in Young, George Kelly, Frank Frisch, Artie Nehf, Jackson and the catchers, Snyder and Gowdy.

Breadon and Rickey reiterated their old stand that "Hornsby is not for trade." But they amplified it by saying that the man who would dispose of any player if they believed the team would be benefited. Further, Rickey said that the would rather have satisfied ball players giving every ounce of effort on every play than men who merely "dogged it" and displayed no spirit.

Hornsby is to be traded at all, it is likely that the deal will be arranged at this conference. Rickey does not admit that he is going to talk with McGraw. He said he had a general young players in the East that he desired to see. But he will drop into New York, he admitted, and it would be merely common courtesy to visit the owners of the Giants, especially in view of the fact that the bidding for Hornsby is open and spirited, even though he is not officially "on the market."

Kinsella Has a Little List. Kinsella came here at the order of McGraw, armed with a list of players from which Rickey and Breadon might select material for a trade involving Hornsby. Breadon said last night that if Kinsella had such a list, he did not present it to him. The list is said to have included every player on the New York team with the exception of Ross

Billikens Show Ability to Stop St. Xavier Plays

Freshmen Fail to Gain Employment Offense Tactics of Ohio Eleven.

Considerable success attended the St. Louis University defense in its effort to break up St. Xavier aerial plays used by the Blue and White freshmen eleven yesterday at Sportsman's Park. For two hours Freshman Coach Jim Finnegan and his cohorts attempted to slip by the varsity charges of Savage and Rademacher, but their efforts were in the majority of instances smothered by the Billikens ends and secondary defense. St. Louis plays St. Xavier Saturday at Cincinnati.

The present plane call for the Missouri team to leave here Friday morning and arrive in Manhattan Friday night for the game there Saturday.

The band and razors will leave here Friday afternoon, spend the evening in Kansas City and take sleeper to Manhattan, arriving there during the night and occupying the car until morning. Returning, all will leave Manhattan immediately after the game, and, unless they desire to spend Sunday in Kansas City, will arrive here early Sunday morning.

The Aggie game for the price of the Kansas City trip.

The Aggie game is here here at the turning point of the Missouri season. Now the Tigers are moving upward, with a chance at the Valley title. If they down the Aggies the rest of their path will be comparatively smooth. If they lost to the Kansans, they will be practically out of the running.

Piker Coaches Rebuild Entire Eleven When Injuries Put Nine First-String Men on Sideline

Young Stribling, Now in New York, Is Too Young for Main Event

(Copyright, 1923.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 1.
WILLIAM LAWRENCE STRIBLING, the 19-year-old Georgia light-heavyweight who gave Mike McGlone such an argument at Columbus, is now in argument at Columbus.

He says he is here to see the sights, but the fact is Frank Flounery, matchmaker at the Madison Square Garden, sent for him. Stribling, as he expects him, under the New York boxing rules, from participating in a final bout, but no doubt the Garden people can rig up a fancy-priced preliminary that will appeal to the Dixie lad.

They have got Battling Siki out among the cows and chickens.

The report that when Mons Levy took over the contract to manage the Senegalese and paid $4000 for the privilege, that Siki and his French manager beat it for Paris is proved to be untrue. Siki is out in the New Jersey hills at Summit, where Freddie Welsh used to hold forth, and long he will live it is a question.

His chief interest in life just now lies in the fact that he is due to be matched against the winner of the battle between Harry Wills and Jack Thompson of Boston in Newark next Monday night.

Stribling is so intensely dissatisfied with his treatment here that this statement becomes important. Whether Hornsby's attitude is justified is not for me to say. But he will drop into New York, he admitted, and it would be merely common courtesy to visit the owners of the Giants, especially in view of the fact that the bidding for Hornsby is open and spirited, even though he is not officially "on the market."

Renault Favorite to Beat Floyd Johnson, In "Smoke-up" Battle

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.
THE business of building up prospects for a烟斗赛 is to be the greatest money year for the heavyweight. It will begin at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night, when Floyd Johnson and Jack Renault meet for 15 rounds or less. Neither is a first-class contender, but the man scoring a knockout would become one automatically, if not actually. Renault is a 7-to-5 favorite.

The pair in question are second-raters today, but one of them may be hailed as a champion-in-prospect tomorrow.

There are two reasons which practically make such a course imperative. The first is that most of the regulars are either actually not able to appear in uniform on account of injuries, or are in such condition that a severe jolt will keep them out of the two major ends.

Schneff, a guard; Albion, a tackle, and Mitchell, an end, all of whom are good players, have been out of the game for some time on account of injuries, and will not be able to start for at least two weeks. In addition to these losses, Ingamill, a guard, was forced by his parents to quit the game, and a number of other regulars received such a battering in the Ames battle that they have not been able to take active part in practice.

Quarterback Unable to Play.

Walsh, regular quarterback, has not appeared in uniform. Herschel, a guard, has been unable to play since he was forced to leave the game.

Thus it is evident that the Piker team which faces Drury College here Saturday in a non-conference engagement will largely be made of new players who have not appeared before in the Red and Green lineup. In the practice yesterday afternoon at Francis Field, the eleven which did most of the scrumming against the freshmen was almost entirely composed of recent additions to the Piker squad, and indications are that the coaches will at least open Saturday's fray with the same outfit.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Evening Post is its copyrighted financial review today says:

"Interest in financial circles continued to center in the stock market today, almost, for the matter, to the exclusion of other departments. After some irregularity in the opening, impressive strength reappeared, particularly in the industrial stocks, which are making new highs for the moment and the rails coming forward as leaders. A mild recession occurred during the second hour and dullness prevailed for a few moments, but the afternoon saw further gains in the Chesapeake and Ohio running up over 5 points. The turnover amounted to $1,200,000.

Shares. Altogether, it was apparent that the session had been a success for the bears and a distinctly satisfactory one for the bulls, whose program seemed to be working smoothly. Profit-taking was well absorbed, as was a certain amount of short selling. Bonds continued firm and the rate on call money was reduced to 4 per cent during the fourth hour after having opened at 4½ per cent.

Exchange Market Quiet.

All stocks on the Continent and in South America and the annual Stock Exchange meeting at London intensified the quietness in the foreign exchange market, resulting yielded from the pressure of a supply of cotton bills and lost half a cent at $4.4750, paying said 3-3c lower than this price.

French francs were off 1 point at 80 cents, with Italian lire and Belgian francs behaving similarly, but most of the foreign bills hardly moved at all. Nothing was apparent in the reparations situation.

"Responding to first of the month demands, the Bank of England's rate was raised to £1,682,000, an increase which has offset a reduction of £217,000 in its deposit liabilities, with the result that the rate of reserve is 11-12 per cent lower than per cent. The change is without particular significance. Due to the holiday, the Bank of France statement was not available.

44 DESCENDANTS HELP TO CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Hanneke (in the center of the group), of 5531 South-west avenue, have been married 50 years, and the event was celebrated at St. Aloysius Church, by high mass by the Rev. Father Brand, the pastor. Five granddaughters and one grandniece, all dressed in gold organdie, and each carrying a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums, accompanied the aged couple to the altar. The photograph shows the golden wedding party at Mr. and Mrs. Hanneke's home during the celebration. Both were born in Germany, having come to America in 1882, and they have resided for the past 33 years at their present home.

Sally Told to Keep Her Engagement Secret

MOSTLY SALLY

By P. G. WODEHOUSE
A CONTINUED STORY

IT was as if someone had punctured him and let out all the pomposity. If this was due, as Mr. Fauciott had suggested, to the influence of Miss Winch, Sally felt that she could not but approve of the romance.

"I'll introduce you sometime," said Florence.

"I want to meet her very much."

"I'll have to be going now. I've got to see Bunbury. I thought he might be in here."

"Who's Bunbury?"

"The producer. I suppose he is breakfasting in his room. I'd better go up."

"You are busy, aren't you! Little marvel! It's lucky they've got you to look after them!"

Filmore retired and Sally settled down to wait for Gerald, no longer hurt by his manner over the telephone. Poor Gerald! No wonder he had seemed upset.

"A few minutes later he came in."

"Oh, Jerry, darling," said Sally, as he reached the table. "I'm so sorry. I've just been hearing about it."

Gerald sat down. His appearance fulfilled the promise of his voice over the telephone. A sort of nervous dullness wrapped him about like a garment.

"It's just my luck," he said gloomily. "It's the kind of thing that couldn't happen to any one but me. Damned fools! Where's the sense in shutting the theaters, even if there is influenza about? They let people jam against one another all day in the stores. If that doesn't hurt them why should it hurt them to go to theaters? Besides, it's all infernal nonsense about this thing. I don't believe there is such a thing as Spanish in-

"We've been hanging about here day after day, getting bored to death all the time. . . . The company's going all to pieces. They're sick of rehearsing and rehearsing when nobody knows if we'll ever open. They were all keyed up a week ago, and they've been sagging ever since. It will ruin the play, of course. My first chance! Just chuck away."

"Why not let her throw up her part?"

"For heaven's sake talk sense," said Gerald querulously. "Do you suppose that man Cracknell would keep the play on if she wasn't in it? He would close the show in a second, and where would I be then? You don't seem to realize that this is a big chance for me. I'd look a fool throwing it away."

"That Hobson woman is beginning to make trouble," went on Gerald, prodding in a despairing sort of way at-scrambled eggs. "She ought never to have had the part, never. She can't handle it. Elsa Doland could play it a thousand times better. I wrote Elsa in a few lines the other day, and the Hobson woman went right up in the air. You won't know what a stir is till you've seen one of these promoted clothes-props, the follies, trying to be one. It took me an hour to talk her round and keep her from throwing up her part."

Philosophy Phrasings

Great names debase, insult and die with the consciousness elevating those who cannot do what he has done his best.

He is a wise man who always knows what to do next.

Envy is destroyed by true ship and coquetry by true love.

The worst of our enemies is a sad thing when a man has those which we carry about him.

It is a bad thing when a man has an ambition beyond his own hearts.

Let every man be occupied in a past which is gone for occupied in the highest now, but there is a future which is of which his nature is our own.

Dignified Style!

Deliciously Old-Fashioned

FOR pastries which depend upon the goodness of the flour for their success, good bakers and cooks have found Stanard's Royal Patent to be unfailing—always dependable. For three generations this quality flour has been the favorite for baking delicious pies, cakes and other pastries. Only the choicest and most carefully milled flour is suitable for fancy baking. That's why Stanard's Royal Patent is the first choice of the best bakers. They know that the delicate flavor and wholesome purity of Royal Patent never varies.

Children's Stories : Household Hints

The foolish boast; the wise keep
"They can't fly as high as I can." still,

OLD Mr. Buzzard had talked too much. He knew it. He felt it in his bones. Besides, his neighbors made it quite clear to him. He had boasted that he could fly higher than any of those man-birds, as the little people of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows called the aeroplane, which they saw almost every day. He had boasted that if he had the chance he would prove that he could fly higher. But right down in his heart he didn't want the chance. You see there was a doubt there. So it was always a relief to have those man-birds pass straight on as if in a hurry to get somewhere.

But one morning one of these man-birds appeared, and instead of hurrying straight on began to swing in great circles over the Green Meadows and the Green Forest. It was not very high up and it made a great noise. At once all the little people remembered the boast of Old Mr. Buzzard, and as many as could hurried over to the tall, dead tree in the Green Forest which was his favorite perch.

"Now is your chance!" said Blacky the Crow, arriving almost out of breath. "Now is your chance, Old Mr. Buzzard! Go out and show that man-bird what it means to fly high!"

"He is making circles just as we have seen you do so often, Old Mr. Buzzard. Go out there and show him how you can keep circling higher and higher and higher!"

"You've boasted what you can do, so now let us see you do it!"

shrieked Chatterer the Red Squirrel.

"That man-bird can fly circles around him and he knows it!" cried Sammy Jay.

"Did you notice that he didn't have that attack of misery until after we got here?" cried happy Jack Squirrel.

It was more than Old Mr. Buzzard could stand. He began to get angry. He forgot his misery. Anyway he got over it very quickly. He glared at his tormentors. "Ah'll show yo!" he grunted and lifted his great wings.

First English Comedy

The first English comedy was "Ralph Royster Doister," by Nicholas Udall, between 1534 and 1541. Udall was at that time a master at Eton and wrote the play to be acted by his scholars. It was printed and licensed in 1548. It is founded somewhat on the "Glorious Soldier" of Plautus. The story deals with the courtship of Christian Constance, a widow, by the adventurer Doister, who is engaged in and double-crossed by the Merry Greek.

YES, we have no bananas.
We have no bananas today.
But not having any, beats having too many.
And having to throw them away.
When bananas won't keep, we must sell them so cheap.
That to deal in them hardly will pay.
So, yes, we have no bananas.

Can't we sell you some Ben Davis apples

We have nuts and persimmons and grapefruit and lemons.
There's a shipment of figs on the way.
